

Cheryl,

We've had alot
of fun times this year
and boy this is going to be a wild summer.

Don't get too drunk <sup>HA HA</sup> I Know you don't drink. Don't ever change Cheryl and remember don't remind me of that unfortunate evening over at Katie's.

Jane
Carey '70"

Cheryl,
Hey, I can't even
spell your name right!!!!
Ok well - hasn't this been a great old year and now
we're seniors and pretty soon we'll graduate, and then we'll get married, + have kids + then we'll die and aren't I depressing!?!
Anyhow - have fun this summer
and be good if you want to!
Love ya,
Anne

There is . . . . .
    . . . . a time to be born, and a time to die,
    a time to break down, and a time to build up;
    a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
    a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
    a time to love, and a time to hate;
    a time for great things, and a time for small things;
    a time for some things, and a time for all things;
This is our time . . . . . the time for us.
                                    - Old Testament -

Cheryl,

Well wow, we're cool seniors! Seems like yesterday when we were little freshman. Good ol' frosh days! KJR, magna falls, new years eve, O and L B. (sorry Lil!) Boy we had a ball. Last summer was pretty wet too. Will I ever forget our fun times then? Sgt. Peppers - she kinda got in a screwed up mess this year but that's all forgotten.

Well here goes the good stuff. I'm not being sarcastic - (ha ha) You're the best friend I've ever had, Cheryl. I know I don't act like it sometimes, but you know me. You've always been there when I needed you (not that that's the only time I'm around you!) Is there much more I could say? I want to wish you all the luck in the world - I know you'll have a great future, cuz you're a great gal.

Well, as I say - Cheer up, things could be worse. When I finally realized that I've lost a brother I realized I have a good friend. Thanks for everything, Cheryl.

Will have a good summer, okay?

Don't climb any mountains without me - K?

Love,
Catherine

Cheryl!
